The mark of responsible forestry

\ US AND THE ENVIRONMENT \

To champion crucial environmental, social, and economic values aligned with global stewardship for the preservation of the natural environment and sustainable development, we have taken the initiative to implement a voluntary certification system for our 'paper products' known as FSC® Chain of Custody. This certification verifies the origin of the raw materials we use, confirming that they originate from forests managed in accordance with internationally recognized principles and criteria of sound forest management.

OUR VALUES

The ethical and social principles that our company has chosen to adhere to are grounded in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, ILO (International Labour Organization) documents, and various international standards governing human and labor rights, in addition to compliance with national laws. These principles encompass:

- Prohibiting and refraining from promoting the use of child labor.
- Rejecting and abstaining from endorsing forced or compulsory labor.
- Abstaining from all forms of discrimination.
- Upholding the rights of freedom of association and collective bargaining.
- Respecting the personal freedoms of each individual worker.
- Ensuring proper management of wages and working hours.
